

Acknowledgements

This report is the valued contribution of many individuals and groups. The team wishes to acknowledge all the valuable contributions made during our investigation, but firstly we would like to thank the fifty participants who were our Tongan mintsers, social and health professionals and community leaders. Thank you for accepting our invitation to take part in this study and for the knowledge and thoughts you shared with us during the investigation.

We would like to thank the Health Research Council for the funding of this study. We would also like to thank our two advisory groups who gave of their time, expertise and knowledge. These people are Dr Okusitino Mahina, Ms Lita Foliaki, Dr Linita Manu'atu, Dr Melenaite Taumoefolau, Mr Paulo Lavulo, Mr Tau'atina Tupou, Ms Kasalanaita Puniani, Dr Peter Adama, Dr Max Abbott, Ms Jopsephine Jackson and Ms Lanuola Asiasiga.

Gratitude is extended to Monica Briggs the manager of Auckland Regional Public Health Services (ARPHS) and the Carol Wildermoth the manager of the Research, Policy and Information team of ARPHS for your support and advice during the investigation.

In particular we would like to especially thank members of the ARPHS Vaka Ola team, your ongoing support, faith and encouragement during the investigation has been steadfast and is much appreciated. Thank you to Luisa Falanitule who offered to read the final draft, Tau'atina Tupou who assisted with our maps and statistical information, Tai Fa'alogo and Natalie Guy for their support in the cover design and printing.

Last, but by no means least, the team would like to acknowledge the vision and support we received from Colleen Ivory, our former Health Promotion manager, who encouraged us to initiate the project and apply for funding. Thank you for your support and foresight.

All your contributions and ones made by others during the investigation process has been much appreciated and valued by the team. We believe that this work is the beginning of much needed research and that it will contribute to assisting in planning interventions and dealing with problem gambling in our Tongan communities in Auckland.
